Please answer the following questions while keeping your responses to 50-100 words knowing that you will have the opportunity to expound on your comments during the interview phase.

1. How would you describe the role of a Youth Pastor?

2. Name 3 distinct areas of youth students' lives that you consider to be of utmost importance for you to influence. (Ex: Substance abuse, youth and parent relationships, activities, etc)

3. How do you equip the youth, as part of the church body, to care for others inside and outside the Youth Group?

4. What type of information do you think would be important to convey to parents on a regular basis and how would you accomplish this?

5. What types of communication devices would you use in communicating with youth, the parents, and your youth team?

6. How would you initiate a relationship with an established group of volunteers within the youth program?

7. Why is it important for the youth to be involved in the physical “set up and cleanup” of the meeting areas or vehicles they used?

8. How would you best describe your passions, gifts, and style when it comes to your teaching abilities?

9. How might your previous Lead Pastor or Professor describe your ability to teach?

10. Describe any experience you have in preaching/teaching.

11. Describe any experience you have in the category of leading/leadership.

12. Do you believe that you are capable of counseling? If yes, then at what point would you decide that you need to bring in assistance?

13. Which of the following best describes you as a “worker”?

- After understanding the task, I prefer assistance to begin work and then continue on my own to complete the task.
- After understanding the task, I prefer beginning work immediately on my own, then ask for assistance if needed.
- After understanding the task, I prefer to work as a team from start to finish.
- Other: _____

14. What kind of system do you use to manage your time?

15. What are your most valuable skills?

16. What musical experience or musical abilities do you have?

17. What do you do to maintain your own mental, physical, and spiritual health?

18. Our church has an “all hands on deck” approach to work. Are you comfortable with helping out with the menial and significant tasks in the greater church body?

19. Would you see yourself as being able to be a part of activities outside of the youth program (i.e general church activities, community activities, etc)?

20. What would you consider to be a weakness of yours?

21. What role has your wife played in your ministry in the past?

22. What are some activities or skills that you and your wife could incorporate into your relational ministry?

23. In what ministry role do you see yourself in 6-10 years from now?

24. If Cornerstone Church was to help support you in pursuing the will of God in your life, what would that look like personally and occupationally?

25. Do you have any reservations about Cornerstone Church's Statement of Faith?

26. How would you describe your walk with the Lord? What is He currently showing you about your heart?

Thank you for taking the time to complete the application! The Pastoral Search Committee is excited to review this and will reach out for an interview towards the beginning of May, if desired. Please email or mail this back to the address below by May 5th.
